The expert

Jane Sheehan has been working over 14 years with the Fußlesen and has since made a name with their special ability of the British state borders. Exciting was the moment when for the first time an association between the feet and the personality of a person stated, "My girlfriend and I had an appointment for foot reflexology. Each time the therapist touched my big toe, I reacted very emotionally. It was so embarrassing! On the other foot, I reacted to the bad just noticeable. Now I wanted to know more! Apparently there was a connection between feet and the personality, "says Jane Sheehan Fußleserin .

Your Feet: The reflection of your relationship

Due to years of experience, Jane Sheehan can draw conclusions about love from the feet of a man on his personality and thus also on its way. "In no case should you and your sweetie have very similar feet. That would mean you would have identical strengths and weaknesses and a very similar character. One of you would find during the time that he actually does not need the other, "said the prominent Fußlese expert from the British Buckingham. "Your feet and your partner should be similar in some characteristics and differ in other properties in the ideal case. The similarities suggest many similarities and are a good basis for a solid bond. The differences give an indication that you will complement each other well in your relationship. "

The Jane Sheehan reveals about your feet and your love life: The great toe

It is your thoughts, beliefs, ideas and your self-esteem. Is your big toe much longer than the other toes? Then you are a clever mind and creative thinker. The perfect partner is one who like to listen to your ideas and help you make a decision. Is your big toe against comparatively short, then you are an excellent multi-tasker. To delegate effectively and use your charm to convince people of your ideas. "In the best case, the toes of your partner run from the large to the small toe in an oblique, uniform line. Your treasure is then very detail oriented, loves to bring and benefits of your multi-tasking ability to end things. They complement each other perfectly, "says the expert. Her big toes are short and wide also, you are very reasonable and down to earth.

The second toe

It represents feelings and emotions. If all of the little toe to the big toe to rise in a uniform line, and only protrudes the second toe, then you are very dominant and want to set the tone in your relationship. "If you can not live out this desire, you can sometimes be a little bossy," warns Jane Sheehan. Is your second toe rather short this indicates that you are peace-loving and considerate.

The middle toe

It shows how much energy and willpower you are stuck in your duties. The longer the middle toe is more determined perfectionist and you are in your job. But what is good for the career, may have a negative impact on your love life: fast of the partners is neglected. Is your middle toe, however briefly, you know how to enjoy life. They love to quietly and calmly, even if sometimes others will therefore consider lazy.

The fourth toe

It reveals a lot about your attitude towards relationships. Her fourth toe is rather short, you are love and partnership is not particularly important. Did you against a long, straight fourth toe, it shows that you care partners and family a lot. The fourth toe is also slightly bent, take your relationship Quarrel and strife in the family always much to heart.
